(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) DENVER, April 29.—Reports re-ceived by General Chase today were that in a two-hours' fight at Forbes in Las Animas county the boarding house had been burned. He was ad-vised that the strikers were retreating over the hills in the direction of Berwind canyon. Companies E and H Twelfth United States cavalry, were expected to reach the Freemont county mine during the forencon.

Fighting at Walsenberg, which ceased late last night, was resumed, guards and militia defending the Walsenberg mine against a considerable body of strikers who are firing at long range.
